Shalom Preschool Would Love A Radio For Storytelling

Shalom Preschool branch of Meals and Wheels in Esikhawini between Empangeni and Richards Bay is trying its best to provide a stimulating learning experience for its 42 toddlers.

“We have space for a playground but most of our equipment is broken,” says branch manager, Mrs. Zama Mkhwanazi.

“Our swings are damaged and dangerous. We need slides and other equipment. We also request an extra classroom as the space we work in is too small. We need to install ceiling boards to keep the children warm in winter. We would love toys and a radio for story-telling.”

In terms of the meals - and the preschool prepares two a day, five days a week - Shalom needs kitchen furniture, a stove and fridge. The office would find a filing cabinet useful.
